Prayer of Confession

Leader: Redeeming God, with You there is always more life, more hope, more joy. When doubt assails us, and we fail to recognize You at work in our lives,

All: Lord, have mercy!

Leader: When fear impairs our faith, and our eyes and ears and hearts do not know You,

All: Christ, have mercy!

Leader: When anger and sorrow stop us from doing the risky work of love,

All: Lord, have mercy!

Words of Assurance

Within every kernel of doubt, there is a tree of life and hope. In those times when our faith falters, when we cannot bring ourselves to see the presence of the Holy among us, God takes our faith and transforms it, patiently showing us the many ways Christ walks among us. Look around you: as close as your own beating heart, and in the eyes of your nearest neighbor, grace abounds at the heart of all life. You are all God’s children, loved without condition -- go in that peace. Amen.

Sermon Notes

- Our roots are not directly from Catholicism or the Protestant Reformation, but from the Radical Reformation (a movement that was rejected by both other groups). Do you think that distinction is important for us today? Why or why not?
- The stories of those faith-filled folks who have gone can guide us in navigating our own faith journeys. Who are the faithful role models you look to?

As immigration enforcement tightens in the U.S., women, children and teens from Central America fleeing domestic and sexual violence in their home countries encounter quick deportation or harsher legal processes and extended detention when they seek refuge. To learn more about this issue, including how to speak with legislators about acting compassionately, read this Action Alert from the MCC U.S. Washington Office, mcc.org/protect-women-children.
